A RECIPE FOR GROWTH

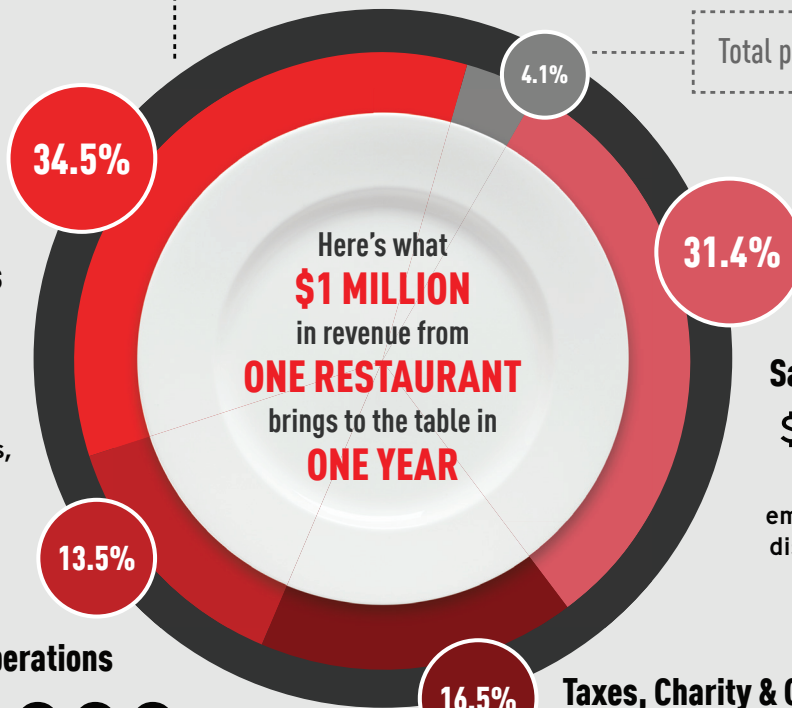

When restaurants thrive, our communities thrive!
From farm to fork, there's a lot that goes into every meal.

Annual revenue for a single Canadian restaurant ranges between $30,000 - $5,000,000
with more than 95% typically going back into the economy.

Food & Beverage Purchases
$345,000
supporting Canadian farmers,
distributors, food manufacturers,
truckers and more.

Total profits after expenses

Salaries, Wages & Benefits
$314,000
employing chefs, cooks, servers,
dishwashers, bussers, cashiers,
hosts, managers and more.

Business Operations
$135,000
supporting tradespeople and designers;
suppliers of furniture, cookware, etc;
professional services and more.

Taxes, Charity & Other
$165,000

to everyone from the landlord to local charities. And to all levels of government through taxes and fees.

RESTAURANTS NEED HELP TO CONTINUE CONTRIBUTING
to jobs, economic growth and vibrant neighbourhoods across the country.
